

Consultation of labor issues

At Comprehensive Labor Consultation Corner, various information concerning troubles at workplace, are provided. The troubles include all different areas of work issues such as working conditions, dismissal from work, refusal of renewing contract, conversion of work position, pay reduction, recruiting, bullying, harassment, and power harassment. At the Consultation Corner, a specialist will either interview or take phone calls and give consultations. Reservation is not necessary and there is no fee for the consultations. Consultation is conducted with due consideration given to the protection of the consulter's privacy.

Consultations are accepted according to the "Act on Promoting the Resolution of Individual Labor-Related Disputes". And the consulter can receive advice, instructions and introduction to related organizations.

If the specialist considers that there are doubts about the violation of laws such as Labor Standards Act, he/she will hand over to the department which has the authority for the administrative guidance such as the Labor Standards Supervision Office.
